"Could I Be Called A Christian?"

Could I be called a Christian
If everybody knew My secret thoughts and feelings
And everything I do?
Oh, could they see the likeness Of Christ in me every day?
Oh, could they hear
Him speaking In every word I say?

Could I be called a Christian
If everyone could know
That I am found in places Where Jesus would not go?
Oh, could they hear His echo In every song I sing?
In eating, drinking, dressing,
Could they see Christ in me?

Could I be called a Christian
If judged by what I read,
By all my recreations,
And every thought and deed?
Could I be counted Christ-like
As I now work and pray
Unselfish, kind, forgiving
To others every day?

REASONING TOGETHER

"Help Someone Finish The Race"

A few years ago at the Seattle Special Olympics, nine contestants, all physically or mentally disabled, assembled at the starting line for the 100-yard dash. At the gun they all started out, not exactly in a dash, but with the relish to run the race to the finish and win.

All, that is, except one boy who stumbled on the asphalt, tumbled over a couple of times, and began to cry. The other eight heard the boy cry. They slowed down and paused. Then they all turned around and went back. Every one of them. One girl with Down's syndrome bent down and kissed him and said, "This will make it better." Then all nine linked arms and walked together to the finish line.

Everyone in the stadium stood, and the cheering went on for 10 minutes.

As I reflect upon this story I am reminded of those within the Lord's body. The Scriptures teach that our relationship with God is ever growing, (2Pet. 3:18). Thus, every Christian is at a different juncture in their relationship with God. Within the Lord's body we find those who have just become Christians and those who have been so for many years. We find some who are weak in the faith and some who are strong. We find those who stumble through their relationship with God and those who run on ahead.

The question is, when someone stumbles and falls, do we just leave them lying in the dirt scuffed and bruised or do we go back and help them up so that they might finish the race? Do we point out all the reasons they failed without showing them how to succeed?

We must be like those eight individuals who heard the cry of the one in need and turned around to help. We must say to the one who is struggling, "This will make it better," and remind them of the hope that is in us, (1Pet. 3:15).

In the end all that remain faithful will cross that line into eternity and receive a crown of righteousness, (Rev. 2:10). Let us strive to be there for each other so that we might all finish the race. (Phil. 2:3-4; James 5:13-18).
