Why Christians are one in Christ

We have the same Lord (Romans 10:12; Ephesians 4:5).

We were redeemed by the same blood (Ephesians 1:7).

We obeyed the same gospel (Romans 1:16; Galatians 1:6-9).

We were added to the same church (Acts 2:41, 47).

We are heirs of the same promises (Acts 2:39).

We are united to the same head (Colossians 1:18; Ephesians 1:22).

We worship the same God (John 4:24).

We all have the same Father (Ephesians 4:6; Romans 8:16-18).

We hope for the same heavenly home (John 14:1-6).

A Godly Sorrow

One day Billy and Bobby were playing in the school yard. Billy wanted to swing on the swing that Bobby was on, but Bobby was unwilling to relinquish the swing. Believing it was his turn Billy pushed Bobby off the swing causing him to cry.

Mrs. Smith, their teacher, heard Bobby crying and came to his aid. Upon surveying the situation she told Billy to apologize and to let Bobby have the swing back. With much protest Billy gave in and did as Mrs. Smith had asked.

A little while later the teacher once again heard cries coming from the swing area. When she arrived she found both boys in the same predicament. Taking Billy aside she asked him, "Didn't you tell Bobby you were sorry for what you did last time?" "Yes," said Billy. But that didn't mean I wasn't going to try and get the swing back as soon as you left."

Friends, this is the way many view sorrow over sin. As long as you say you are sorry you can do it again. But as we see in 2 Corinthians 7:10, "For Godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation, not to be regretted; but sorrow of the world produces death."

A Godly sorrow is a sorrow directed towards God. You are sorrowful for the deed which you have done because it has not pleased God. One who loves God has an unwavering desire to be right in His sight and so that person must repent of this deed. Godly sorrow itself is not repentance, but it does produce repentance. To repent, literally means, to change ones mind and this is "not to be regretted." Godly sorrow leads us down the path of obedience in repentance. When we are obedient to God's will He forgives us of this deed.

Worldly sorrow is directed towards self. It is the type of sorrow that says "I'm sorry I got caught." There is no true desire to be right in the sight of God. This sorrow does not work repentance but "produces death."

An example of worldly sorrow is Judas Iscariot in his betrayal of Jesus, Matt. 26:47-50; 27:1-5. Although he returned the thirty pieces of silver and said he had betrayed innocent blood, he still went and hung himself. He felt sorrow towards himself not towards God. Judas did not repent. He did not turn to God and ask for forgiveness.

It must also be noted that Godly sorrow is something that takes place both before and after becoming a Christian. This sorrow exists before, so that we might come to Christ through obedience, Heb. 5:9. Godly sorrow exists after, so that we might remain with Him Rev. 2:10.

Don't be like little Billy who said he was sorry and then waited for the opportunity to do wrong again. Let the sorrow for the sin you have committed against your God work repentance so that you might have forgiveness of sins, Acts 2:38; 22:16. Have a sorrow that is not to be regretted because it produces repentance to salvation.
