Meet the Tater Family

- *Some people never seem motivated to participate, but are just content to watch while others do the work. They are called Speck Taters.
- * Some people never do anything to help, but are gifted at finding fault with the way others work. They are called Commin Taters.
- * Some people are very bossy and like to tell others what to do, but don't want to soil their own hands. They are called Dick Taters,
- * Some people are always looking to cause problems by asking others to agree with them. They are called Agie Taters.
- * There are those who say they will help, but somehow just never get around to actually doing anything. They are called Hezzie Taters.
- * Some people can put up a front and pretend to be someone they are not. They are called Emma Taters.
- * Then there are those who love others and do what they say they will. They are always prepared to stop whatever they are doing and lend a helping hand. They bring real sunshine into the lives of others. They are called Sweet Taters.

By love serve one another. - Galatians 5:13

"I Have Sinned"

"I have sinned," said Pharaoh in Exodus 9:27 and Exodus 10:6, as he saw the hail mixed with fire running along the ground, as he saw the herbs of the field and trees killed and as he saw the locusts and the crops eaten by them. "I have sinned," said Balaam in Numbers 22:34 when he realized that he was out of the will of God for his life.

"I have sinned," said Achan in Joshua 7:20 after taking the money and the Babylonian garment from the city of Jericho. He took of the accursed thing not to be taken by God's people. As the Israelites came near the city of Jericho, God said, "Do not take a thing!" Perhaps Achan said, "It will not matter if I take a little money and a little garment." He took the money and the garment and hid them in his tent. After the battle of Ai was lost, Joshua called the people together and said, "Who sinned?" The lot fell toward Achan, and he and his family were brought before the entire camp and were stoned to death.

"I have sinned," said Saul in 1 Samuel 15:24, 30 when Samuel rebuked him for disobedience. "I have sinned," said Saul when David had spared his life though Saul was seeking to kill David. Saul went to sleep outside the cave. David and his servants came out of the cave, and there was Saul lying asleep. David could have pulled his sword and pierced the heart of Saul.

"I have sinned," said the prodigal son in Luke 15:18, 21 as he returned home, having spent all. As he came to himself, he said, "I will arise and go to my father." He arose and went to his father and the first three words he said were, "I have sinned!"

It is much easier for us to say, "He has sinned," "You have sinned," or "They have sinned." Yet the Bible says that there is a special reward for the person who says, "I have sinned."

David, the man after God's own heart, the psalmist of Israel, the harpist of Israel, the greatest king who ever sat on the throne in Jerusalem said, "I have sinned." If David the man after God's own heart can say, "I have sinned", don't you think we ought to be able to say, "I have sinned?"

Let us learn to say, "I have sinned", not "She has sinned." Learn to say, "I have sinned", not "He has sinned." Learn to say, "I have sinned", not "They have sinned." May we never be so proud that we cannot say, "I have sinned."

Sin has a pretty beginning but it also has an ugly end. Every day is better than the day before. What can we do? Confess it! 1 John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." Have you sinned? The first step toward forgiveness is confession. Admit it. Face up to it.
