No. 01

Yesterday; Today; Tomorrow

Each week has two days about which we should not worry, two days we should keep free from fear and apprehension.

One of these days is yesterday, with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains. Yesterday has passed; it's forever beyond our control.

All of the world's money cannot bring back yesterday. We cannot undo a single word spoken or deed done. Yesterday is gone forever.

The other day about which we should not worry is tomorrow, with its possible adversaries, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance. Tomorrow is also beyond our immediate control.

If God permits, tomorrow's sun will rise, either in splendor, or behind a cloudy mask. Until it does, we have no stake in it, for it is yet unborn, out of our view.

This leaves only one day--today. Anyone can fight life's battles for just one day. Only when we add the burdens of those awful eternities--yesterday and tomorrow--do we break down!

It is not today's experience that drives us mad. It is remorse or bitterness for what happened yesterday and the dread of what may happen tomorrow. Let us, therefore, live but one day--today--at a time.

But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. "So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. (Matt. 6:33,34)

Welcome to the services of the Church. If you are visiting with us, we appreciate your presence and invite you to stay a few moments after services so we may have an opportunity to meet you. Please feel free to pick up one of our Visitors Packets in the foyer.

Reasoning Together

Our Destiny is Our Choice

By “destiny” we mean that which will eventually happen to us after this life is over. All of us are headed toward an eternal destination, and there are only two places to go, and all of us will go to either one or the other. We will either spend eternity with God in a wonderful place called “heaven” (Rev. 21:1-5), or we will spend eternity in a place of “everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels” (Matt. 25:41).

But the wonderful thing is that we have a choice while we are on this side of eternity as to which place we will go. God has always given folks a choice.

In the long ago Joshua challenged his fellow Israelites to “choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve” (Josh. 24:15). And then he continued by saying, “but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” And we have that same choice today. God, in His love and mercy, sent His Son to die on the cruel cross, and shed His blood in order that we may have a choice.

We can either get serious about our salvation and choose to enter “the narrow gate” with the “few” in “the way which leads to life” or choose to go with the “many” who choose the broad way that leads to destruction (Matt. 7:13-14).

And whether we know it or not, we are making that choice right here and now. If we choose not to make a choice, then we are actually making a choice. Because Jesus said that “he who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad” (Matt. 12:30).

If you are among the many who think that just because you believe in Jesus that is all that is required in order to be saved, you have another thought coming. “Even the demons believe - and tremble” (James 2:19). It is said of Jesus that “He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him” (Heb. 5:9). Please don’t wait until the judgment to find out that is true. Read your New Testament for yourself, and take the advice of Jesus’ mother concerning Jesus: “Whatever He says to you, do it” (John 2:5). Begin today, time is short!
