Somewhere in Time

You probably missed it. MIT student Amal Doral threw a party for a special group of people. He provided the chips and dip for a “Time Traveler Convention.” He notified the time travelers about the convention by placing invitations printed on acid-free paper in library books. Attendees were supposed to prove their time traveler status by bringing a cure for cancer, or something like a future sports almanac.

Time travel is one of those things that has always fascinated me. I have enjoyed books and movies with time travel themes, like Back to the Future and Somewhere in Time. Unfortunately, all of these movies and books are fiction. Although some scientists suggest there are ways we might time travel, no one has ever succeeded, and probably never will.

What has always fascinated me about those time travel books and movies is how going back and changing one small thing in the past can make a difference in thousands of ways in the future. Isn't it strange how one small decision can have life changing effects? Leaving five minutes later, or five minutes earlier means we never meet a certain person, we never make that bad driving decision; we never say those words that change our lives.

Since we can't time travel, we need to use the present wisely, because the future will be changed according to how we use the present. Paul advises, “See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil” (Ephesians 5:15-16). We redeem, or buy back the time by serving and obeying God, every day that we live. Jesus summed it up in John 14:15: “If you love me, keep my commandments.”

What are you doing today that will change tomorrow for the better? Something you do, or don't do today will change tomorrow.

Reasoning Together

Trusting in God rather than Possessions!

We must place our complete trust in our Creator, obey His word and lay up treasures in heaven. We must not put our trust in other things such as possessions, wisdom, power, fame or fortune. Cf. Job 1:22. How can we trust in God rather than possessions? (Consider 1 John 2:15)

1. We must put our complete faith in God. The word faith means, “trust, belief, confidence, conviction.” Faith to a Christian is like a foundation to a house. A house is only as strong as its undergirding and a Christian is only as strong as his faith (Heb. 11:1). Cf. Prov. 3:5; Jn. 14:1; Heb. 11:6.

2. We must separate ourselves from the world. Love for the world and love for God cannot coexist simultaneously in one person. Either we love the world or we love God, but not both (Mt. 6:24). We cannot walk with God and run with the devil. Cf. Rom. 12:2 Jam. 4:7, 8; 1 John 2:15-16.

3. We must have the right priorities. Our priorities show where our treasure is placed. If our heart is obsessed with material goods, our priorities in life will be to gain more of them. However, if our heart is focused on eternal things, our desire will be to gain heaven. Cf. Josh. 24:15; Matt. 6:19-21, 33.

4. We must love God more than money. Jesus declared that we “cannot serve God and mammon” (Matt. 6:24). Jesus knew the enticements of this world would tempt some to set their affection on the earth (Col. 3:1-2), so He declared the difference between God and mammon (i.e., earthly gain). Cf. 1 Tim. 6:3-10; Jam. 1:9-11, 5:1-6.

5. We must commit our lives to Christ. This means having a vital connection to the church (Acts 2:41-47) and involving ourselves in serving God (Mt. 4:10). Cf. 2 Tim. 1:12. When Dr. David Livingstone was working in Africa, a group of friends wrote him: “We would like to send other men to you. Have you found a good road into your area yet?” To which he replied, “If you have men who will only come if they know there is a good road, I don’t want them! I want men who will come if there is no road at all!”
