Our God Is...

The God of All...

Grace -- "And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and establish you" (I Peter 5:10).

Peace -- "The things you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, practice these things; and the God of peace shall be with you" (Philippians 4:9)

Hope -- "Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit" (Romans 15:13).

Patience -- "Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus" (Romans 15:5).

Comfort -- "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; who comforts us in all our affliction so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God" (II Corinthians 1:3-4).

Glory -- "The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran" (Acts 7:2).

Our God Works...

With Man -- "And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them" (Mark 16:20).

In Man -- "So then, my beloved just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for is good pleasure" (Philippians 2:12-13).

By Man -- "Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were entreating through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God" (II Corinthians 5:20).

Christian Apologetics

The Heavens Declare

Our universe is filled with awesome wonders. There are billions of galaxies, each containing billions of stars, each one named by the Creator (Isaiah 40:26). Even the configurations of the stars in the heavens have a purpose (Job 38:31-33).

The "Speech" of the Day

The "day unto day" faithfulness of constant stability and dependable processes is a "speech" without words that testifies to God's care and provision (Psalm 19:1-2).

We have already touched on the specific wonders of the sun and the moon (see "The Sun and Moon"). These great lights were obviously designed to "rule" the daytime and the nighttime (Genesis 1:16), and their role in "telling" us about God is fairly easy to see if we are not blinded by an insistence on the unprovable position that "There is no God" (Psalm 14:1).

What may often be overlooked by the "day unto day" routine (Psalm 19:1-2) of our existence is that the very dependability of each day's processes are a wonderful testimony to the design, purposes, and faithfulness of the Creator. The whole core of evolutionary naturalism, however, is randomness, an unknowable, undependable chaos and disorder. The universe, on the other hand, is very stable!

- The sun rises in the east and sets in the west—always.
- The earth turns on its axis and cycles through its “day” at the same speed every time—always.
- The dependable clockwork precision of the tides regulates much of our life—always.
- The seasons come and go, the planting and harvesting follow each other dependably, life is conceived and born with regularity, even “natural selection” preserves and conserves the vast species of earth—always.

This wordless "language" is easily read by all humanity, and openly "declares" that God is awesomely omnipotent and omniscient, and at the same time lovingly compassionate and faithful. All living creatures depend on it.
